RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 25, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tara Cooper
Hearing Officer

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 25, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jul 02, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jul 05, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 29, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jasmine Garrett
Hearing Officer

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 25, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Yaritza Lopez
Hearing Officer

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 29, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program because, at the time of application, your account had been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 25, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Jasmine Garrett
Hearing Officer

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 28, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program because you have more than 50 Full Time Equivalent employees.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 30, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Joe McCall
Hearing Officer

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jul 01, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program because, at the time of application, your account had been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 30, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program because, at the time of application, your account had been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jun 30, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program because, at the time of application, your account had been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Jul 09, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your application was properly denied; you are not eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program because, at the time of application, your account had been identified by the Department of Labor and Workforce Development with an outstanding balance of over $5,000 with the Unemployment Insurance/Employer Accounts and/or an outstanding judgment of over $10,000 going back 5 years with Labor's Wage and Hour Division.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Aug 24, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov>.

Sincerely,

/s/ Yaritza Lopez
Hearing Officer

RE: Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your appeal. Please find below the NJEDA's decision.

We received your appeal from the denial of your application for the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program, created by board memorandum dated April 14, 2021.

As the Hearing Officer, my job was to review your appeal and decide whether there was a valid reason to deny your application or whether there is a reason to reverse that decision. As part of my review of your grant application and appeal, I have read your appeal email dated Aug 25, 2021 and reviewed the information from your application. Based upon my review, I have decided that:

- Your appeal should be granted because you are eligible for a grant under the Small Business Emergency Assistance Phase 4 Grant Program with respect to your original declination reason. Your application will now be reviewed for all other eligibility criteria and you will receive an email with additional instructions on how to proceed in approximately three weeks.

This decision, approved by the undersigned, constitutes the Final Administrative Decision of the Authority.

Please note that your business may be eligible for other financial assistance. You can access the online "Eligibility Wizard" at <https://assistance.business.nj.gov/>.

Additional information for businesses impacted by the coronavirus outbreak is available on the State's COVID-19 Business Information Hub: <https://cv.business.nj.gov/>.

Sincerely,
/s/ Tara Cooper
Hearing Officer
